Robert Parham (only son of Sarah Collier) had two sons living at Grand, Ga. old station near

Sa Grange, Ga.
July 29, 1912.

Mr J. C. Collier
Bancroville, Ga.

Dear Sir: Your letter received, I am quite noted am glad to say that your mother is entirely right - about my mother (Mrs. Abraham) being a daughter of Sarah Collier who married Robert Parham the first time and after being a widow for some time married Judge Swett.

My mother was devoted to the Collier kin and I do wish so much that I could have known your mother a little sooner, it would have been such a pleasure to my mother, (who was Mary Ann Popham daughter of Sarah Collier) as all of her relatives of the older crowd have all, as she thought passed away.

There is only one of Sarah Collier's children living now, and that is Aunt Fannie Popham Baldwin of Paris Texas.

Who is the youngest child I think.

I will give you names of Stinson, Ga. - and one son Robert Parham living in Greenville, Ga. - Grandmother (Sarah Collier) is buried in Greenville, Ga. - Sarah Collier's children - and grandchildren - are all splendid upright, honest, Christian people; citizens that would make any "Mayor" proud of his town.

Your Mother must be right old as my own dear Mother was seventy-nine - I would be glad to know your mother's maiden name.
If there is anything more that I can tell you about the connections, I will be glad to do so.

Very Respectfully,
Miss F. P. Longley.
